

THE CONSTITUTION AND BY- LAWS OF THE IGBERE PROGRESSIVE ASSOCIATION INTERNATIONAL, INC.

ARTICLE I

NAME, PURPOSE, AND PRINCIPLES

The Association shall be known and addressed as IGBERE PROGRESSIVE ASSOCIATION INTERNATIONAL, INC. (IPAI)

PURPOSE

The purpose for which the Association is formed is as follows:

- A. To promote charitable, educational and scientific activities, and to develop and operate community-based services for Igbere people. The Association will use methods consistent with the organization's non-profit, charitable, educational and scientific purpose as the directors may advise from time to time, all for the purpose of securing for the people the same basic rights as all other citizens of the world.
- B. The Association pursues the stated purpose in compliance with the following statements of philosophy:
 - 1. To promote unity and solidarity among all members.
 - 2. To encourage and support development and progress of the community.
 - 3. To work towards better quality of life in Igbere and the community or residence by providing such amenities like healthcare, potable water, electricity, roads, scholarship and sports, etc.
 - 4. To promote mutual cooperation and respect amongst members of the Association.
 - 5. To promote the welfare of the members and support each other when conditions and events call for such support.

All members of the Association, in pursuit of the purpose stated in Article I, solemnly affirm and declare their adherence to the following principles:

- 1. The equality of all members.
- 2. The right of each member to lawfully express himself/herself freely without fear of reprisal.
- 3. Respect for the rule of law and for the universally accepted democratic principles in the discourse relating to the affairs of the Association.
- 4. Peaceful settlement of disputes by negotiations, mediation and reconciliation.
- 5. Respect for the decisions of the Association and of its properly constituted governing authority.
- 6. Affirmation of basic objectivity in all deliberations of the Association.
- 7. The chapter organizations (including prospective new chapters) are the backbones of IPA International. These chapters will continue to function as independent entities within state laws (nation) in which they are incorporated, and they will inclusively and exhaustively support the efforts and activities of IPAI.

ARTICLE II MEMBERSHIP

- A. All Igbere sons, daughters, and wives who are domiciled overseas shall be entitled to nominal membership of the Association. Such membership is a privilege automatically accruable to all indigenous Igbere persons by virtue of birth or marriage.
- B. All members who are current with their annual membership dues within their IPAI Local Chapters and who have paid their one time enrollment fee of $50.00 (subject to change) to the IPAI shall be considered active members. To be current with dues, each member must not owe more than three months dues. Irrespective of the one time enrollment fee to IPAI, members may still be considered non-active if they owe three months past dues to their Local Chapter. A member may also be classified as inactive based on his/her Local Chapter's WRITTEN by-laws provided that such aspects of the by-laws do not conflict with provisions of the Association's constitution and by-laws. In the event of such conflict, the Association's provision shall supersede that of the local chapter.
- C. Honorary membership may be conferred to non-indigenous Igbere persons who have taken special interest in the affairs of the Association and have made substantial contributions in the advancement of the causes of the Association and Igbere people.

ARTICLE III

Section 1: Admission of new members

Admission to the membership of the Association is open to all indigenous Igbere persons who are 18 years and above as stated in ARTICLE II-A. Membership enrollment shall be accomplished when prospective members or other members familiar with their desire to enroll request that they be enrolled in their local chapters and proceeded to pay their one time $50.00 (subject to change) registration fee to IPAI of any chapter organization of their choice. The virtue of distance or location of residence may grant admission to a prospective person who by situation beyond his/her control has no access to a local chapter.

Section 2: Registration and Dues

There shall be an initial registration fee of $50.00 (subject to change) by all members of IPAI, payable upon admission. Other financial contributions for the maintenance of IPAI shall come from the members in form of annual dues of $120 per member. The $120 dues should be payable via the member's local chapter. The local chapter shall in turn remit the annual dues from its members to the International Organization (IPAI) in not more than two yearly installments. The Executive Committee from time to time may recommend increase or decrease of members' annual dues and registration fees subject to approval by a simple majority of the general members.

ARTICLE IV

RIGHTS, DUTIES, AND DISCIPLINE OF MEMBERS

Section 1: Rights/Duties of members

- a) All active members of the Association shall enjoy equal rights and duties.
- b) All active members of IPAI shall have the privilege of making motions, voting, seeking or holding office, serving on the committees and participating in the business activities of IPAI.

- b) Any members, who say, write, disseminate or cause to disseminate articles or words in order to defame, damage or falsely accuse another member, shall pay a fine of $500.00. The affected member shall file a complaint against the offender before the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee shall take a swift action to investigate and establish that the alleged offensive act (s) had occurred. The offender must be given an opportunity to defend himself/herself. If the offender is found guilty, he/she shall pay the stipulated fine within seven days. Failure to do so shall result in suspension of the offender from IPAI for a period of six months and subsequently expelled if he/she has not paid the fine after the six-month suspension.
- c) No local chapter of IPAI shall hold meeting, party, convention or any other type of event and/or activity at the same period that the IPAI is holding its biennial convention. Any local chapter that violates this rule shall pay a fine of $5,000 to IPAI. All the officers of the offending local chapter shall pay fines of $500 each. Should the local chapter or its officers fail to pay the said fine within 30 days, the local chapter and/or officers shall be suspended from IPAI until such a time as they pay the fine.

ARTICLE V

DEATH OF A MEMBER

In the event of death of an active member of the Association:
